

A Two-Mile Walk/Run
Saturday, September 21, 2019
 5:00 p.m.
Tulane University - Uptown Campus

One in every nine of our fathers, husbands, brothers or sons will be diagnosed with prostate cancer during his lifetime. One in 41 will die of this disease. Prostate cancer is a formidable opponent, but Dr. Oliver Sartor at Tulane Cancer Center is battling back and making progress. You can join the fight! There are two ways to help...

- ◆ You can help raise important research funds by making a tax-deductible donation—any amount is appreciated and makes a difference—or by becoming a sponsor of the event. Donations or sponsorship payments can be made online at www.nolabluedoo.org.
- ◆ You can help raise awareness by registering to participate as a walker or runner in this two-mile event.

I know that running a road race is a potentially hazardous activity, which could cause injury or death. I will not enter and participate unless I am medically able and properly trained, and by my signature, I certify that I am medically able to perform this event, and am in good health, and I am properly trained. I agree to abide by any decision of a race official relative to any aspect of my participation in this event, including the right of any official to deny or suspend my participation for any reason whatsoever. I assume all risks associated with running in this event, including but not limited to: falls, contact with other participants, the effects of the weather, including high heat and/or humidity, and other conditions of the road, all such risks being known and appreciated by me. I understand that bicycles, skateboards, baby joggers, roller skates or roller blades, animals, and headsets are not allowed in the race and I will abide by this guideline. I for myself and anyone acting on my behalf waive and release the New Orleans Track Club, Inc. and all sponsors, their representatives and successors from all claims in liabilities arising out of my participation in the event. I grant permission to use any photographs, motion picture recordings or any other record of this event for any legitimate purpose.
